

Your report

You're in the early stages of cloud adoption or facing barriers that limit progress. This is a pivotal moment to reset your strategy and unlock the full value of cloud.

Key challenges you may be facing

- Limited Cloud Adoption: Cloud adoption is workload-specific or minimal, with many systems still on-premises.
- Alignment Gaps Between Business & IT: Business and IT alignment is inconsistent, leading to fragmented cloud initiatives.
- Platform Engineering needs development: Platform engineering is nascent or not prioritized, limiting developer productivity and scalability.
- AI-Readiness concerns: Infrastructure is not yet ready to support enterprise-wide AI initiatives.
- Short-term Cloud Provider Relationships: Cloud provider relationships are transactional, lacking long-term strategic planning.
- Questions around ROI & Modernization steps: There's uncertainty around cloud ROI, governance, and modernization pathways.
- Skills and legacy systems challenges: Skills gaps, legacy dependencies, or cultural resistance may be slowing progress.
